

Click below to learn more about Ewan Macgregor

Early Life

Obstacles

Why he is remembered

Achievements

His work with Unicef and Charley Boorman

Bibliography

Click here to enter

Click here to go to title

Charlie Boorman

Ewan Macgregor

By Hamish Kemp

Early Life

- Ewan Macgregor was born in Perth on 31st of March he was brought up in Crieff
- He went to Morrisons academy.
- He was offered the role of James Bond but refused it.

Back to Contents

Why he is Famous.

- He is remembered for his films such as "Trainspotting", "Star Wars" and "The Island".
- He is also remembered for his support of Unicef which tries to help the poor.

Back to Contents

Obstacles

- On his adventures with Charley he faced huge emotional and physical challenges.
- He faced the challenges of trying to get to New York and Cape Horn in a certain amount of days which put him under huge pressure.

Back to Contents

Achievements

His first film "Being Human"

He is more famous for the "Star Wars" trilogy

He is also known the movie "Trainspotting"

Back to Contents

Unicef and Charley Boorman

- Ewan Macgregor has adopted a child from Unicef while on his adventure Long Way Down.
- Ewan Macgregor has done Long Way Down, Round and is planning to do Long Way to Go he has done these and is going to do these with Charley Boorman and in association with Unicef.

Back to Contents

Bibliography

- http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Ewan_McGregor
- <http://images.google.co.uk/images?hl=en&q=Ewan+McGregor&btnG=Search+Images&qbv=2>
- <http://uk.youtube.com/watch?v=LvozRQ-1qdO&feature=related>